"Kitty In The City, Mind Your Manners, S'il Vous Plait" is an illustrated behavioral guide for children, set in the timelessly elegant New York City. Divided into six sections, Table, Bath, Phone, Guests, Out and About, and Respecting Your Elders, each section explains practical and proper situational etiquette through the beloved characters of the "Kitty In The City" series. The book includes timeless tips for tots, from the proper way to conduct oneself at the table, to remembering basic pleasantries like "please" and "thank you." The book also addresses more contemporary guidelines of common courtesy regarding mobile phones and elevators. Whether Kitty and her friends are showing the inappropriateness of passing out invitations at school or illustrating the virtues of good hygiene, the underlying theme is undoubtedly basic respect for oneself and others.
