Pop Life Ryan Loveless

2nd Edition

Andrew writes the songs everyone sings along with on the radio—tunes full of love, longing, and heartbreak. He has a knack for tapping into emotions, but when it comes to his own, the feelings aren't so easy to manage. Sent to New York City to work on Irish singer Paeder Brogan's first solo album, Andrew is caught in the middle of a boy band's infighting and secret love affairs while battling the memories of his last trip to the Big Apple, which ended when English pop star Jamie Webster drunkenly kissed him.

Andrew's heart leaps when he discovers he's staying at the same hotel as Jamie, yet he doubts Jamie recalls him, even though Andrew wrote his biggest hit. Jamie remembers him, though, and he seems to think Andrew is the only person who can save him from his downward spiral. Even as his feelings for Jamie swell, Andrew faces the real threat that the maelstrom he's walked into will pull him down alongside Jamie.

First Edition published by Silver Publishing, 2011.
