Helping Others Avoid and Overcome Pornography G. Sheldon Martin

Whoever you are, wherever you are, and whatever your -experience has been with pornography, you can change. Whether this is your own struggle or the struggle of a family member, friend, or ward member, the Mighty One of Israel can make all things possible.

In a world ruled by the Internet and mass media, the adversary has refined a powerful and devastating tool: pornography. Countless self-help books examine methods of overcoming pornographic addiction, but very few offer additional help for parents, spouses, and Church leaders seeking to support the addict who is struggling to conquer this desperate personal battle. Author G. Sheldon Martin draws upon his years of experience as a mental health counselor, teacher in the Church Education System, and bishop to help readers learn to identify and address addiction in a loved one. He shares ten practical tips that will help families and others gain strength and overcome this challenge, including:

- Teaching and understanding sacred sexuality
- Removing sources of pornography
- Learning to do good and to serve God—not just to stop doing evil
- Reinforcing the hope of forgiveness through the Atonement

This book is an uplifting and inspirational guide to navigating the thorny path of addiction—a loving reminder that no matter the individual or circumstance, pornography can be overcome. Through Christ, all things are possible.
