Winchell Cuts the Cheese Taylor Lee, Peter Van Dijk

When an unpleasant odor wafts through the barnyard, Sheep asks, “Who cut the cheese?” Winchell the pig avoids the question again and again throughout the day. But at bedtime, the porcine stinker realizes good little piggies should excuse themselves after letting one slip. Vibrant art and clever wordplay introduce an adorable pig (and his long-suffering friends) as he comes to grips with that most natural—and embarrassing—of acts. Fun(ny) way to learn the etiquette of flatulence—without using the f-word. More Winchell books on the way!
