Morgette and the Shadow Bomber G.G. Boyer

Dolf Morgette was in Alaska when he first heard about the series of mysterious bombings in Pinebluff, Idaho. The legendary gunfighter and lawman didn't think at first that he or his family were in any danger. It sounded to Dolf like the bombings were directed at mine owners, probably by disgruntled miners who were unhappy about recent cuts in wages. But he was wrong. Very wrong. Soon he and his family were in a great deal of danger indeed—and Dolf was right in the middle of everything. If he couldn't find a way to straighten things out fast, Dolf might just find himself blown sky-high.
