Nasty, Brutish & Short Short David Michael

A collection of violent flash fiction and short short stories by David Michael.

The Call of the Hunter Moon - Violence is easy. You just let go. Your hands become claws for ripping. Your teeth bare, you snap, you grab, you tear. You smell the fear, savor the screams, taste the blood...

Tucker - When I arrived, the boy stood there surveying the chaos he had wrought, gloating over it all--except for her. He wouldn't look at her. She knelt by the body she had once inhabited, her physical face now unrecognizable in the gore...

Crowfeeder - At our arrival, the closest of the black carrion birds startled. A ripple, like a wave in a black ocean, flowed across the field as the birds flapped into the air, reconsidered once they saw how few we were, and settled back to continue gorging...

And 10 more!
