Have you ever wanted to start a daily Bible reading habit without knowing where to start? Most people who have a desire to dig deeper into Scripture feel they have to purchase lots of expensive and confusing resources to help them to begin a meaningful ritual of reading and memorizing the Word of God.

"The Gospels Challenge" was created to help people on all levels of biblical knowledge to develop a habit of reading and understanding the Bible on a daily basis. Conducted over all social-media platforms, over 500 participants took the journey of falling in love with reading God's word as well as the Savior the Scriptures are all about. This book is a portion of the rich treasures discovered during that study.

"The Gospels Challenge" provides a suggested method of engaging God's word every day as well as a devotional thought for 30 days worth of that exercise. Because Jesus is the most valuable, pivotal, significant and essential character in the Bible, this book takes each reader through the journey of beginning their Bible-reading habit with a survey of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ.
