A story of overcoming fears and taking bold chances...

Adam is a college dropout, struggling to make ends meet. With no marketable skills, he's waited tables for years, living on tips to just get by. He has a friendly attitude and is filled with optimism that someday he'll meet someone special.

Singing in a gay men's choir is the one joy in Adam's young life. Surprisingly, he gets chosen to sing one of the lead parts in the upcoming concert.

Paul is a buff young man with an amazing singing voice. He's been trying to make it on his own after living in his strict parents home for too long.

He's been steadily building his confidence, with the hope of one day finding happiness and love. He wants to come out to his parents but can't get up the nerve, knowing it will disappoint them.

When Paul takes a job as a waiter, it sets into motion something exciting and new. He still must come to terms with the fact that he's living a secret life, and there's no way he can do it alone.

When Hearts Collide is a 20,000 word standalone novella with HEA ending and no cliffhanger. It's the second book in the East Jersey Gay Men's Choir series. The books do not have to be read in order.

The first book in the East Jersey Gay Men's Choir series, Bold Moves is available on Amazon.com.
