This post-modern quest novel about the search for a far-out holy grail is a modern medieval morality tale in which the only missing ingredient is morality. Michael, a new age tennis cowboy, travels all over the fragmented landscape of the U.S. by car, by plane, by train, and by spaceship, doing battle with any number of absurd foes. The novel closes out the 20th century and wafts the reader on a magic carpet into the pre-apocalyptic 21st century.
