The Lord has been teaching me which battles are mine and which are not. One of the battles I have been fighting is being superwoman instead of a Godly woman. I want everything in order and done right. Yet I haven't asked God how, why, what, or where to begin. I just been basically doing everything in my own strength to the point I am tired and wore out. Precious Lord take my hand, lead me on and let me stand.....yes that's me. We are living in a time where its time for us as women to stand up and rise. We must take each other by the hand and help each other to be all we can be with Christ Jesus in our hearts. We need to know what God is saying to our nation, to our community, to our church. What is He saying to our domestic violence victims, to the single mother that is trying to raise children on her own, little girls who have been sexually, emotionally, psychologically abused, and to those who have no faith? Politics does not define the heart of God. He loves people. He cries over people. He sent His Son to die for people.

Women, what are we doing with our voice? We have a circle of influence. Are we using it for God not just in the sacred place, but in the secular place, as well? The Spirit of the Lord is upon us. Its Ok We Don't Have To Be Superwoman.....But a Godly Woman of Strength.....
