Sharks of New England Alessandro De Maddelena

Not many creatures are as feared and misunderstood as sharks. If you think they are primarily a tropical species, you'll be surprised to learn that New England's chilly waters are home to 33 different species of sharks, including such notorious predators as the great white, tiger, and bull shark. Accurately illustrated and meticulously researched, this book is a handy field guide to the sharks inhabiting New England waters. Its aim is to extend the knowledge necessary to understand, admire, and protect sharks.
