In this Middle Grade/Young Adult Novel, Solomon Shinn expects his evacuation from Hurricane Katrina to be like any other. Instead, he embarks upon a mental, physical, and spiritual journey that leaves him questioning the difference between dreams and reality. Facing nightmares after The Storm, Solomon struggles to find the faith he needs to conquer his fears. Talking stars, an unlikely spaceship, a magical book, new friends, and two enigmatic strangers cross his path across the universe and back home again. At the start of his adventure, Solomon is merely a lost boy who talks to stars. In order to conquer his fears and help save the world, he may have to become one.
